

Recommended Recruiting Services for High School Players from AVCSS Basketball

1. www.berecruited.com

Join the largest and most successful online network connecting high school athletes and college coaches. Athletes should register as soon as possible. Our family has experience with this service, it is not very expensive, but very effective – we had a lot of success with this one.

2. <https://www.ncsasports.org/>

Claims to be the largest athletic recruiting platform since they were founded as the National Collegiate Scouting Association more than 15 years ago. The sports recruiting world has shifted, they are always evolving to make recruiting better for college-bound athletes.

3. <http://www.maxpreps.com/national/basketball.htm>

MaxPreps.com is a very successful online network connecting high school athletes and college coaches. High school coaches should register their players as soon as possible – this service keeps tracks of statistics, and ranks players (which also assists college coaches with finding players).

4. <http://mvpsportsrecruiting.com/>

This sports recruiting website enables high school athletes to build their own free online profile, helps you to develop a custom marketing plan so you get noticed / evaluated and recruited by matching your skills and abilities!
